The Weston A. Price Foundation
- Is a reliable source of accurate nutrition information.
- Provides a strong voice against processed and imitation foods.
- Receives no funding from any government agency, nor from the meat and dairy industries.
- Campaigns for a return to healthy traditional fats.
- Warns consumers about the dangers of modern soy foods.
- Promotes access to unprocessed whole milk products from pasture-fed animals through A Campaign for Real Milk.
- Keeps members informed through Wise Traditions, a lively and informative quarterly journal.
- Helps consumers find healthy, farm-fresh foods through a system of local chapters.
